

Staff Instructions for Completing Authorization for Disclosure of Medical Information

UW-Madison staff obtaining or receiving authorization need to review these instructions in full before using or accepting the attached authorization form.

Patients/participants should not be provided with these instructions.

1. The authorization form needs to be filled out completely and accurately to be valid
 - a. Fields 1-6 on the UW-Madison Authorization for Disclosure form(s) need to be completed by staff before being given to the patient/participant for signature
 - b. In cases where the authorization is requested and filled out by the patient/participant, staff should review to ensure all fields are filled out completely and accurately
2. The authorization form should be written broadly enough to enable all anticipated use cases of the information to be released
 - a. If the patient/participant wishes to modify any fields, staff should discuss and ensure modifications still facilitate anticipated use cases
 - b. In cases where the authorization is requested by and filled out by the patient/participant, staff should review to ensure the form accurately reflects the individual's stated intent
3. If the authorization will be signed by someone other than the patient (for an adult) or a parent (for a minor), please contact your Privacy Coordinator before disclosing information under this authorization to confirm that it is appropriate for this individual. This includes situations in which a minor is attempting to sign authorization on their own behalf
4. Staff must give the patient/participant a copy of the signed authorization
5. Staff should also save a copy of the signed Authorization and store it securely in accordance with departmental policy
 - a. Contact your Privacy Coordinator with any questions about departmental policy

Additional Information About Your Rights

There are federal and state laws that protect your medical information. Before signing, please read the following to ensure you understand how these laws and regulations apply to this authorization and your medical information.

No Obligation to Sign. You are under no obligation to sign this form, and you may refuse to do so. Except as permitted under applicable law, UW-Madison health care providers may not refuse to provide you treatment or other health care services if you refuse to sign this form.

Revocation. You have the right to revoke this authorization at any time before it ends. However, if you revoke this authorization, it will not change or undo any sharing of your medical information that already happened before your revocation. Any person or organization listed on this form may still use information they already received. Your revocation must be made in writing and submitted using the contact information at the end of this form.

Re-release. HIPAA only applies to certain types of entities. If the person(s) and/or organization(s) authorized by this form to receive your medical information are not subject to HIPAA, then that information may no longer be protected by HIPAA. Once shared, that person or organization may be able to further share your information without your permission.

Signatures. Generally, if you are 18 years of age or older, you are the only person permitted to sign this form. If you are under the age of 18, in most circumstances your parent or guardian must sign this form for you. However, there are situations in which these general rules do not apply. For more information on these exceptional situations, contact the UW-Madison HIPAA Privacy Officer (contact information below).

Additional Rights Under HIPAA. HIPAA also provides additional rights that don't just apply to this authorization. If you would like additional information on these other rights, you can review the Notice of Privacy Practices that you were provided by your clinic or contact the Privacy Officer with the contact information below.
